

WALKED BLOCKS WITH DEAD BABE

Mrs. Gillman Would Not Believe Child Had Died Till Ambulance Doctor Told Her.

With her dead baby in her arms, the victim of carelessness in leaving a bottle of benzine within its reach, Mrs. Cella Gillman walked many blocks to her home, No. 161 East Second street, early this morning. Not until many hours later and until an ambulance surgeon had refused to take away the body did she become convinced that the child had really died.

Mrs. Gillman and her husband, Morris, and two-year-old baby Sigmund, were visiting last night at the home of Mrs. Solomon, No. 164 Henry street. Mrs. Solomon has been ill for some time and unable to take care of the house.

The baby, while his father and mother were chatting with their sick friend, started playing among the bottles, and, finding some benzine, drank a quantity of it.

CHOIR GIRL SUES CHURCH ORGANIST

Lottie Felz Demands $10,000 from Stanley Blynz in an Action for Alleged Breach of Promise.

Lottie Felz, of No. 639 Third avenue, Brooklyn, brought action in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, today against Stanley Blynz for $10,000 damages for breach of promise.

She said that Blynz proposed to her on June 26, 1901, but that he deceived her, and in February last married Annie Saxe.

Blynz is an organist in the Polish Church, at Twentieth street and Fourth avenue. Lottie was a member of the choir.

STRANGE JOURNEYS OF A PATROLMAN.

Remarkable Story Revealed by Adolph Gebhardt in an Application for Reinstatement on the Police Force.

Adolph Gebhardt today obtained an alternative writ of mandamus from Justice Blanchard, in the Supreme Court directed against Police Commissioner Partridge to compel his reinstatement as a patrolman.

Gebhardt alleged that he had been dismissed from the police force on Sept. 7, 1890, for being absent from duty for more than five days without leave, and demanding reinstatement on the grounds that he was not mentally responsible for his conduct at that time, his mind having become a blank on Aug. 3, 1890, while he was on patrol in Queens, owing to the aggravated domestic worries and annoyances to which he was subjected at that time and for three years prior thereto.

He said he had no recollection as to how he left New York, but that within a week he found himself in Boston and started for the railway station to telegraph to his captain, when he again lost track of himself and subsequently discovered himself in San Francisco, where he put himself under medical treatment, and when he was able, worked as a barber until after thirteen months he had saved enough money to get back to New York. He further says that his domestic tribulations have been ended and that now he is in perfect health.

Corroborating affidavits are made by Dr. George L. Eaton, of San Francisco, and Dr. J. Riddle Sharp, of No. 196 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street, this city, who say that they treated Gebhardt for neurasthenia.

WALKER HELD IN BAIL.

Officials Doubt If a Case Can Be Made Out Against Him.

Thomas H. Walker, arrested last night on a charge of violating the Postal laws, was arraigned before Commissioner Richards today and held in $2,500 bail for examination next Thursday.

Walker said he had no fear of the outcome. Two postal officials say they doubt if a case can successfully be made against the defendant.

Walker was arrested at the instance of the Chief Inspector of Post-Offices in Cincinnati, on the charge that he and an associate named Edgar organized a sort of discretionary pool in that city to speculate on the races.

SEAMSTRESS GUILTY.

Mrs. Fanny Marsh, of No. 250 West One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, a seamstress, pleaded guilty today to the charge of stealing two diamond rings, valued at $400, from the home of former District Attorney Eugene A. Philbin, at No. 333 West Seventy-seventh street. She was held for trial.

A BIG DEAL IN CLOTHING.

Bernheim & Co., the Harlem Clothiers, Buy S. J. Nathan, Son & Co.'s Entire Stock.

The entire clothing trade was amazed when it became known that Bernheim & Co., of Third avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, had bought this big stock for spot cash, because this firm's goods are sold by big retailers in every large city and have never been offered at a sacrifice. We are informed that Bernheim & Co. closed the deal at a price that enables them to sell these high-grade suits for men and boys below their cost of production. Bernheim & Co. are on the downtown corner of One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street and Third avenue.
